YAQUINA BAY.

For answer to a recent report by Col Stewart, corps of engineers, on the obstructions to the entrance to Yaquina Bay, the Corvallis Gazette says

Col. Stewart could not, of his own personal observations, state that the obstructions to the entrance of Yaquina are "not fixed in position, but rapidly movable within a rather wide limit." Himself and party were landed at Cape Foulweather four miles north of Yaquina Bay, took a carriage and was driven to Newport, went up the bay a few miles and returned to Foulweather same afternoon. This is all the opportunity Col. Stewart had for observing the obstructions to Yaquina Bay

Soon after this official visit to Yaquina Mr R. A. Habersham was ordered to make a survey of the Alsea bay and entrance some 15 miles to the south of Yaquina. He e was found a movable obstruction ... sand ... and Col. Stewart ... mistake ... of misstatement has ... the two places ... and the statement he makes above should apply to Alsea, and not Yaquina

As a positive and unanswerable proof that the obstruction to Yaquina bay are not movable or shifting, it is only necessary to state, as a fact, that the ranges and beacons placed by Lieut Chase in 1868 were found by Capt. Wood in 1879 to be correct remain unchanged and have been used by marine all this time We assert upon the authority of both Chase and Wood and without fear of successful contradiction that the obstructions to Yaquina bay are not shifting or easily removed. It is a sunken reef or ledge of rock one hundred and fifty yards across from deep water outside to deep water inside The only sand that is or could possibly remain upon this reef ... is found in holes or pockets in the rock

Of course no statement of Col Stewart, or any one else, will change the facts in the case, or make one inch more or less water on the reef. All we desire is fair play and truthful statements. If Yaquina Bay is not all we claim for it we will give it up. But we have not been striking in the dark or guessing at this matter for the past fifteen years We know whereof we affirm and Captain Wood's survey when published will forever close the mouth of all croakers, and enemies to Yaquina bay

CHAS DEYOUNG MURDERED

DEATH AT THE HANDS OF MAYOR KALLOCH'S SON

He Walks Into the "Chronicle" Office and Shoots DeYoung at the Counter—A New Attack on the Elder Kalloch the Cause

The Sand Lot Rabble Rejoices at the Tragedy—Disgraceful Demonstration

FULL DETAILS OF THE AFFAIR

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN]

SAN FRANCISCO April 23 —Just before 8 o'clock this evening Charles DeYoung entered the business office of the Chronicle on the ground floor at the corner of Kearny and Bush streets and was talking with a gentleman leaning against a counter Directly the door opened and I. M. Kalloch entered and drawing a pistol without as far as can be learned speaking a word began firing at DeYoung The latter ran through the gate of the counter to a desk inside Kalloch firing at him as he ran On reaching the desk DeYoung turned to face his opponent with a pistol in his hand when Kalloch leaning over the counter fired again the ball striking DeYoung in the mouth Kalloch then started for the door DeYoung raised his pistol as if to fire but apparently his strength failed him for the pistol was not discharged and sinking backward he fell on the floor By standers ran to his assistance but the ball had evidently pierced the base of the brain and in a few moments he expired As Kalloch ran out of the door he was seized by a citizen and at the same moment an officer came up and took him into custody and conducted him to the city prison where he was locked up

News of the murder flew through the city like the wind, and in a few moments the streets in the vicinity of the Chronicle office were crowded with people eager to learn the particulars of the affair Policemen were at once stationed at the doors of the office to keep out the inquisitive crowd and only a few personal friends and reporters were admitted In the rear of the office M H De Young brother of the deceased reclined on a lounge surrounded by friends evidently overcome by the tragedy but with dry eyes and calm though strained voice He was not present at the time of the shooting having left home after dinner a few moments later than Charles Deceased lay on his back on the floor, his face and breast dabbled in blood, his eyes closed and his face bearing the calm expression noticeable in the case of those dying from shot wounds Only one wound was found on his person although at least four shots were fired by Kalloch two having pierced the glass doors and partition of the office A third lodged in a window casing

Young Kalloch on being arrested was as the arresting officer remarked, the coolest man he ever saw He still carried the smoking pistol in his hand, which he surrendered to the officer On his way to the station house he observed a strict reticence and on being shown to his cell positively refused to have any intercourse whatever with representatives of the press

In the absence of any explanations from the assassin of the causes of the act it is generally understood to be attributable to a pamphlet which has recently been circulated about the city attacking Mayor Kalloch the father of DeYoung's slayer During his recent visit east it is believed that deceased devoted a great deal of attention to gathering up matter regarding the past life of Mayor Kalloch for the presumed purpose of either using it at the expected trial of the deceased on a charge of shooting Kalloch last August or of making it subserve journalistic purposes The pamphlet above referred to was a document of some sixty pages, and recounted the details of the Kalloch scandal in Boston and other matter of a scandalous nature The pamphlet was anonymous, but young Kalloch evidently considered that deceased was responsible for its publication and acted accordingly

AFTER THE TRAGEDY.

Indecent Exultation of the Sand-Lot Mob—What the Pamphlet Contained—Popular Comment, etc., etc.

Further inquiry shows that young Kalloch fired five shots at DeYoung, of which only one the fourth, took effect Otherwise the original report of the affair seems to be substantially correct It is evident that the deed was deliberate Officer Noyes states that a few moments before DeYoung entered the office he saw Kalloch walk along Kearny street and peering through a window of the Chronicle counting room He was evidently waiting for the arrival of his victim

At about quarter past 9 the coroner's assistants took the body from where it had been lying on the floor awaiting his examination and removed it to a wagon for conveyance to the morgue. The crowd in the mean time had increased to a thousand, blocking up both Kearny and Bush streets It was composed of all classes evidently including a great many of sand lot proclivities and as the body was brought out cheers, howls and ejaculations of exultation and derision arose. The coroner's wagon, escorted by a squad of police, drove at once to the morgue, followed by a hooting, whistling and yelling mob The demonstration was confined merely to words, no action of a violent nature occurring. On arriving at the morgue a crowd gathered there, for a while continuing its demonstrations, but soon dispersed and the officers retired

The conduct of the mob called forth many expressions of indignation and disgust from the more respectable by standers but there was nothing whatever tending towards any breach of peace A great concourse still lingered in the vicinity of the Chronicle office discussing the affair but an alarm of fire several blocks distant drew many of them away at about ten o clock

The pamphlet previously referred to proves on examination to be simply a full report of the trial of I S Kalloch in the case of the Boston scandal with a brief preface to the effect that it was published with no malicious motives but simply to give a plain unvarnished report of the trial It bore the imprint of Eberhen & Co, Boston 1857 but was evidently a fresh publication. It seems to be admitted that the document was issued with a view of influencing public opinion in connection with the approaching trial of De Young and it may perhaps have been further intended to have some bearing upon more immediate issues

It will be remembered that the Chronicle ... its office about ten days ago The Typographical union and the Amalgamated Trades union took up the fight for the discharged Chronicle printers and have placarded the city with appeals to the public to withdraw patronage from the paper, and have published ... to the same effect in ... journals A mass meeting was advertised for to-morrow evening to denounce the course of the Chronicle which ... been addressed by Mayor Kalloch among others, and it is possible that the publication of the pamphlet was designed to have its effect on this present quarrel as well as on the coming trial of DeYoung

It is as yet too early to gauge the general expression of public opinion ... but so far as could be learned from talk heard on the streets this evening, its tenor seemed to be that the death of DeYoung at the hand of the son was the legitimate outgrowth of ... the attack of the ... is her

When the coroner's wagon bearing the body of DeYoung ... Kearny street into Market ... that had ... the wagon ... Market ... attempt ... beating ... the crowd ... punishment ... press ... Chronicle office and at the ... offices of the Call and at the morgue quietly discussing the affair and ... with ... usual morbid interest to hear any further particulars obtainable

JUDICIAL AGES IN AMERICA.

PORTLAND April 23 1880

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

Tony objects to Lord, Waldo and Watson as candidates for the supreme bench because they are as he thinks too young and he sneeringly asks if their mothers know they are out I would like to ask Tony which is better for judicial ... young man of ... intelligence and education who is a student ... ... principles of honesty and ... public favor by a bright future ... or ... without honesty or ... age of these candidates ... Mr. Lord is about ... eight. Mr Waldo thirty five, and Mr Watson about thirty ... Lord came from ... Oregon ... Waldo is a native of this state the son of an old pioneer and Watson came ... thirty ... They are all young men of great ... and ... ability ... honesty In ... true sense of the word they are men—... regarded by the bar as of superior ... ability and Lord and Waldo are specially regarded as eminently ... judicial mold Watson is less known ... of the state but those who do know him speak of him in like manner

The question then recurs having men of ability education and legal learning is Tony correct when he says they are too young in their swaddling clothes as it were? The history of our state falsifies Tony's statement and relegates him to his original position of the ... of nonentity presiding over ... When first ... upon the bench ... Oregon judges were of ages as follows Peter G Burnett about 35 O C Pratt at 30 Wm Strong, at 33 Geo H Williams at 33 through he had previously for four years been a circuit judge in Iowa, Cyrus Olney at 45 M P Deady, at present one of the most distinguished ornaments of the American circuit bench at 28 R P Boise about 38 P P Prim at 35 though he had no natural gifts and was better fitted for his original occupation of wagon driver, W W Page, at 30 R E Shattuck at 38 E D Shattuck at 36 Joseph G Wilson at 34 L L McArthur one of the best of our democratic judges, at 27

So the intelligent American mind all over the union also brands Tony with silly stupidity in alleging too much youth against these candidates of the people Of the justices of the supreme court of the United States the following and many others whom I have omitted became judges in their thirties Joseph Story, appointed associate justice of the U S supreme court in 1811 at 32, at 34 John Marshall declined an appointment as associate justice of that court John Jay first chief justice of U S supreme court, was chief justice of the N Y supreme court at 32 Wm Johnson, associate justice of the U S supreme court, was circuit judge in South Carolina at 32 and on the U S supreme bench at 38 by appointment of Thomas Jefferson Bushrod Washington of Virginia became associate on the U S supreme bench at 33 by appointment of President John Adams, Noah H. Swayne was at 30 elected judge of the state court in Ohio David Davis at 33 in Illinois, John McLean at 31 to the supreme court of Ohio, Samuel Nelson judge of the N Y circuit court at 30, and supreme court at 31 James M Wayne judge circuit court of Georgia at 34

Hiram Warren, a native of Massachusetts and for forty years on the bench in Georgia was elected by the Georgia legislature a circuit judge at 31 So in every state of the union the greatest judicial intellects will be found to have entered on their judicial careers before they passed their thirties The whole history of the world too brands Tony as a silly prater It shows that the highest efforts of human genius have been made by men in their thirties, whether it be in law or letters in theology in arms or deeds of high emprise When Jesus Christ uttered his unequaled lessons of moral philosophy he was just past 30 and crowned his noblest of all careers by martyrdom at 33, the same is true of John the Baptist Julius Cæsar was a Roman chief judge at 37, and at 39 one of the greatest of Romans Francis Bacon's great "essays" were written at 35 William Pitt was the greatest man in England at 30, Thomas Jefferson was only 33 when he wrote the declaration of Independence Bonaparte at 30 was first consul and sole ruler of France, and at 35 was master of Europe If Tony is right, these candidates for the supreme bench are too young and ought to be defeated If Tony is wrong they are very proper men and ought to be elected James K. Kelly is the only instance in Oregon history where a lawyer began his judicial career at an advanced age He is about 60 His fame now smells of political chicane and subterfuge During his judicial career with Poor Prim Prim the Oregon bench has become odorous with judicial outrages and the people have become filled with uneasiness and alarmed at the insecurity of their rights A widespread distrust prevails As applied to life long politicians of loose morals there is exact truth in Dr Sam Johnson's sentiment expressed in Rasselas, that "in the decline of life shame and grief are of short duration whether it be that we bear easily what we have borne long or that, finding ourselves in age less regarded we less regard others or that we look with slight regard upon afflictions (public contempt) to which we know the hand of death is about to put an end "

No change could put us in a worse plight Let us have these educated, earnest conscientious young men to administer the laws of our state or any two of them with John Burnett The republicans have done well They have nominated judges for the people not for rings and hence Tony and the poor hardened barnacles are mad with insensate rage

SPEECH OF HON. J. N. DOLPH

At the Ratification Meeting in Turn Halle Thursday Evening

... ... the ... ... for ... ... that ... ... the ... party a united effort ... to enable ... after ... ... the ... ... the ... the ... ... the party ...

... ... the ... ... a ... ... my ... ... probably with ... ... By the way ... that ... the ... ... the result is that there are more candidates than places, and some have to be disappointed. The ticket however fairly nominated represents a compromise of interests and ... ticket represents the aggregate sentiment of the convention and of the whole party expressed through these representatives Therefore when a ticket is once fairly nominated and men of character put on it every member of the party who clings to the party from principle is bound to support the ticket The republican party is of more consequence than any man or set of men. Of the ticket itself taken in all, it may be truthfully said no better one was ever nominated in the state Your candidate for congress is a ... a lawyer of ... a man of sterling character of broad views and of no inconsiderable experience in public affairs and as you have seen a fluent and pleasing speaker I believe he will be elected and though he may not make the quickest trip east on record you will hear of something he has done before his trip east. The candidates for supreme and circuit judges are good selections. No one will question but that they all possess the first important requisite for good judges—but ... and they are known to the profession to possess good legal attainments and great industry Then let us remember that "United we stand Divided we Fall

This election is one of great importance It is not alone important that your candidate for representative in congress should be elected and take the place of Gov Whiteaker and that your candidates for supreme and circuit judges ... be elected though these are important Lying back of this are other reasons of great importance A republican victory in Oregon will foreshadow a republican victory this fall Some ... and I am sorry to say it within our own party affect to think that the republican party has performed its mission, and that there only remain questions of finance of tariff and of commerce and those that would speak of the republican party its achievements in the past or its mission of the day are but fanning the flames of sectional prejudice When ever the republican party has performed its mission whenever the fruits of the war are so established that there is no danger of their being lost then let the memories of the past be forgotten But its mission is not ended and will not be ended until it is determined that the settlement of the war shall stand that liberty for all shall be enforced until from the Gulf of Mexico to the great lakes, and from Maine to Oregon everywhere men may speak their sentiments and everywhere life liberty and property shall be safe and completely protected under the constitution and the laws and assassination shall no longer be the agency of political action in any portion of the land

The republican party is a party of principles It was called into being as the embodiment of a great principle of no less a principle than that declared in the declaration of independence That all men are created with certain inalienable rights among which are life liberty and the pursuit of happiness It soon became the embodiment of another great principle that this is a nation and that the federal union is not a mere league of states, to be dissolved at the pleasure of any member—a mere rope of sand to be swept away by the first wave of popular commotion These ideas have been during the years of its existence as a party its grand fundamental principles It was for these principles that it has met the foes of free institutions and human progress in the shock of battle in legislative halls and at the ballot box It was to maintain these ideas that from so many northern homes went forth the pride and joy of the household to lay his life upon the altar of his country It was to maintain these ideas that five hundred thousand brave men to-day sleep in soldiers graves It was to maintain these ideas that generations to come must be taxed to pay the expense of putting down the rebellion and preserving the union Right grandly has it done its work It brought the nation through the ordeal of the most gigantic civil war that ever drenched a land with fraternal blood It freed the nation from the curse which had ridden it since its foundation a disgrace at home and a reproach among the civilized nations of the earth It raised a race born upon our soil from bondage to freedom from freedom to citizenship Is it true that there is no longer danger threatened to our country from the doctrine of state rights? Is it true that the south acquiesces in the settlement of that question by the arbitrament of the sword? If so, what means the constant reiteration of the doctrine of state rights in the platforms of the democratic party and in public and even private documents? What mean the insolence of the confederate brigadiers in congress? A few days since we were reminded by THE OREGONIAN of the anniversary of the assassination of President Lincoln. Well do I remember the sorrow and excitement of that day and subsequent funeral pageant and the eulogy of ex Gov Gibbs Suppose on that occasion Gov Gibbs had predicted that within less than fifteen years eleven confederate states out of a representation of ninety three members in congress would be represented by eighty five confederate soldiers that there would be sixty five confederate soldiers in the house and twenty in the senate of the United States besides three who had held high civil position in the confederate government Who would have believed him Yet so it is The confederate cause dominates in both houses of congress It blocks the wheels of legislation It seeks the repeal of the laws provided by ... men to secure the purity of elections and only fails because President Hayes has backbone enough to use the veto power conferred upon him by the constitution And more than this The south stands knocking at the doors of congress for the payment of their slaves (or payment for damages suffered from the war It is well known that it has kept an account of its slaves and preserved the proof of the loss of property and expects to recover for them from the general government Let them once secure the president by fair or foul means and their claims will be paid The north in presenting four fifths of the taxable property of the union will be taxed for their payment Not only this, but the confederate soldiers will be pensioned The emancipation proclamation and constitutional amendments will be declared void If the supreme court, the last bulwark of constitutional liberty is in the way they will not want ... as was suggested by another ... to ... for the judges to die or increase the members of the court but a brigadier general with a file of soldiers will reduce the court to submission You do not all believe in the existence of this danger You did not believe the south would fight. You were amazed when Fort Sumter was fired upon ... no alarmist but ... this danger ... real It was foreshadowed by Ben Hill in the house of representatives when he said The next time we fight we will fight under the old flag ... shall the rebels ... The Fishermen's Meeting Adjourned till the Next Centennial—How Matters Were Settled

REGULAR CORRESPONDENCE OF THE OREGONIAN

ASTORIA April 22 1880

The events of the last few days have made a marked ... in the external appearance of things in ... From ... ... the dispute between them and ... This morning ... day they held a meeting in the court ... After the usual ... ... the ... ... we ... fish without riot and blood-shed we cannot maintain this strike and I for one am going to fish for 60 cents and I would like to see the man who would dare to stop me This bombshell ded and created considerable excitement scattering the crowd with a motion to adjourn to 3 P M Carter's bold statement virtually ended the strike then and there Realizing this to be the case most of the fishermen repaired to their respective canneries to announce their intention to return to duty and secure if possible their boats and nets. The cannerymen met them in the proper spirit and in almost every instance the men were reinstated in their former positions In the afternoon about 100 all told fishermen and lookers on assembled in the square, and Mr Tim Driscoll of Westport acting as chairman mounted the rostrum and gave the few fishermen present some good advice He said Gentlemen you have inflicted a serious injury upon the up river fishermen Knowing your strength and numbers they believed you to be a unit on this important question and deeming your cause just they refused all offers for less than 60 cents being determined to stay by you to the last. You have now lost their confidence and hereafter not one of them will attend a meeting of Astoria fishermen called for the purpose of raising the price of fish Let me advise you in future never to start a movement even if you know you are right, unless you feel assured that you are prepared to accomplish it Mr Driscoll who has himself been a strong advocate for 60 cents then told them there was nothing left for them to do but to accept the ... offered and to go to work as soon as they could get a boat and net And now said he I want any man who has anything to say to come on this stand and say it and when he has done so to go home and forever after hold his peace

John Field alias Happy Jack who had made himself very conspicuous at every meeting by the length and sand lot style of his speeches advocating the 60 cent rate now made a motion that three cheers be given for the d—d fools who had stuck out for 60 cents to the end after which on motion the meeting was adjourned till the next centennial

Two hours after this meeting had dispersed scores of gayly painted fishing boats with their white sails spread to the breeze dotted the bosom of the lordly Columbia cheerful evidence that the Astoria strike of 80 was a thing of the past We hope the fishermen will ponder the lesson and let it be the last

As the head and leader and exponent of the resumption ... John Sherman has more title to the ... of his day and generation than any one man and to him ... be said ... ... of a great principle In the last quarter of a century he has been identified with nearly every great measure that has brought his party success and renown and he is in our opinion, more entitled to the name of statesman than any republican in active political life Of the three candidates mentioned for the Chicago choice we believe John Sherman is the one who can poll the largest vote, and the only one who can get the whole of his party to the polls

E. H. MILLER LATE BOOKKEEPER OF THE ... ...

CONTINUE THE WORK [illegible]

Our election this year [illegible] is not only important as the precursor of November [illegible] has a significance in reference to the affairs of the state which it would be well to [illegible]. [illegible] years and more the [illegible] power of the state has been almost wholly in the hands of the democratic party. Not since 1862 has there been a legislature not controlled in one or both branches, [illegible] ally in both, by the democratic party. During this long period, or at least down to that time when the [illegible] administration surrendered the trusts it had abused, there had hardly been a check upon schemes of partisanship, certainly no sufficient check to secure right administration under the vigilant supervision which is afforded by a strong opposition and the [illegible] changes of party ascendency. This has been the period of extravagance, peculation, political favoritism, legislative jobbery and administrative scandals which make so shameful an exhibit in the affairs of our state. It is not necessary to assume that all honesty or all dishonesty is in one party or another. But the fact is open and notorious that it was democratic administration in the state which gave rise to those wholesale corruptions which have scandalized the state and robbed its treasury. Moreover, when an investigation was had through which part of the great mine of fraud and peculation was opened, the managers of the democratic party refused to credit the result, denounced the investigation and its authors, endeavored to shield the officials who had so grossly abused their trust, and virtually took the position, to which they still cause the party to adhere, that it is nothing less than treason to party to expose the extravagance and looseness and corruptions of those whom it places in power.

In the recent convention held by the democratic party at Albany not a word was permitted in condemnation of the great frauds which had been perpetrated, nor a word in approval of the results of the investigation which disclosed their enormity. Though that investigation was conducted by democrats, the party is not permitted to justify or approve it, and the members of the committee are treated with a studied disrespect or neglect. The democratic party has, indeed, plenty of honest men in it, but there are many of them who, though entirely true and honorable in the ordinary affairs of business and life, become so attached to party that they will not allow themselves to believe anything which might cast discredit upon the object of their idolatry. No doubt there are republicans of the same kind. But in dealing with the case before us we find this infirmity strikingly exemplified. For it is infirmity of perception or judgment, if nothing worse, that leads men to judge of party as a thing entirely distinct from the individuals who compose it. There is no party morality that rises higher than the morality of the men who constitute the party, and it is absurd to defend party rascals lest the party might suffer from their exposure. Attachment to a party as a means of accomplishing political results through adherence to general principles is a rational thing. But the abuses of it are many, not the least of which is a blind zeal that shuts up the understanding against wrongful and dishonest acts committed in the name of the party, and which treats all criticism directed against party or official abuses as hostility to the party itself. Unscrupulous men take advantage of this devotion to party, and through it push their objects, feeling almost perfect security against exposure or rebuke.

Inasmuch as the democratic managers refuse to allow their party to support the reforms begun at the last session of the legislature, it becomes more important, if the work is to be continued, to place the power to continue it in other hands. This is an argument of no small force for the election in June. A republican sweep will be a proper rebuke to the cowardice of the democratic party in refusing to uphold the results of reform and to commend those to whom reform in so far as it has been carried, is due. The June election will turn mainly on consideration of state affairs. The recognized necessity of change should bring into the legislature a class of men disposed to do the work the state requires, rather than support schemes against the public interests still entrenched in legislation, or protected hitherto by supposed party interests. The people now have a chance to reform the legislature and the courts, as they have reformed other branches of the state government. Will they do it?

AGE AND EXPERIENCE

It is urged by the democratic press as an argument against Mr George that he is not so old as his competitor. It is true. But most of the experience which his competitor has gained with years is of a kind which could be of no value to anybody. Mr Whiteaker is a rather indolent and uncultivated old gentleman, who has spent his life in an easy, careless manner. His political career, which has been signalized by nothing to be remembered except as it has furnished material for a grotesque anecdote or two, began with an accident which made him governor of the state. The then political dynasty of Oregon, in looking about for handy material, so as to facilitate a kind of geographical distribution of the offices, fell upon Mr Whiteaker and he was chosen, but it was a mere accident that selected him over any other member of the party in that section. Since then he has sometimes been sent to the legislature, but his name is connected with no measure except the look bill, and with that in a way which brings no benefit even to a man of his years and alleged experience. His career as a congressman is celebrated for the quick time he made across the continent to vote for Jo Blackburn, the Kentucky wiper"—the man who proposed to "wipe out" all war legislation—for the speakership, and for the customary public documents sent to the editor of his county newspaper. Mr George fortunately is not so old as Mr. Whiteaker and perhaps has not spent so much time over the violin, but he has industry, energy and talent, by means of which he has risen into notice. They who object to Mr George as young would hardly have allowed the weight of such objections when Mr Lafayette Lane was a candidate for congress some years ago.

Should Grant, says the Sacramento Record Union, carry the entire southern delegations, the fact would give special emphasis to the non-representative character of these southern delegations. They do not stand for any republican strength in their states. It is a foregone conclusion that every southern state will elect democratic electors. Yet the machine [illegible] means of these impotent states will enter the national republican convention with almost power enough to dictate the nomination of the party against the rest of the country. [illegible] this is a very precarious condition of things, seeing that the rank and file are republicans and not [illegible]. The latter in such a case would vote unhesitatingly for the party choice and never pause to inquire how it came to be made, but republicans have an awkward habit of bolting when they are dissatisfied with the party management, and the activity of the independent movement at the east appears to bode ill for the success of any scheme to steal the nomination by the votes of non-representative delegations.

Those people who charge that political "skullduggery" is exclusively an American [illegible] [illegible] ared on not daring to trust [illegible] ation and the order of his [illegible] ated a number of small free [illegible] ng up a number of cheap [illegible] Though still [illegible] American [illegible]

When journalism pursues a course which [illegible] as assassination it should be no surprise to find the methods it uses turned against itself. For the San Francisco Chronicle now finds in the murder of its chief [illegible] one of the natural outcome of the kind of journalism of which it has been a conspicuous representative. But the crime of his assassination is not for that reason to be in the slightest degree excused. For assassination, especially when it proceeds from the contentions of personal hatred, can never be anything else than the most odious and heinous of crimes. In the case of the DeYoungs and the Kallochs it is evident that one bad set have encountered another. In fact that was evident a good while ago. This atrocious business is one of the shames of San Francisco. It had been carried to a point where it is probable the only possible solution was in such an act on one side or the other, and as DeYoung set the example of assassination last summer there is now evidently and for that reason less feeling against the man who has turned the weapons of murder against him, but in every phase it is a bad affair.

By a recent change in her state constitution Indiana has abolished her October elections. Her elections will now be held in November. Political managers in the eastern states are glad of this, since Indiana, having ceased to be an October state, will by consequence cease to be a "sink" for money on election day. This will be a gain to the political morality of the state and a relief to the treasuries of political parties.

Mr. Dolph's speech on Thursday evening at the republican ratification meeting, which we print in full this morning, though short, is a very notable one. Its points are stated with great clearness and force. It well sums up the chief reasons on which the appeal will be made in this presidential year against turning over the government to the democratic party.

The atrocious crime of being young men the republican candidates for the supreme bench attempt neither to palliate or deny. But if wisdom depended on years we shouldn't have had those extraordinary opinions recently delivered from the supreme bench.

The nominee of the fifth judicial district for prosecuting attorney is Robert Eakin, a well-known lawyer of Eastern Oregon and not F. Page Tustin, who is a member of the state central committee.

"Patrick de facto C J" is the particular addition now much employed among protesting democrats to express their feelings. They seem to think it expressive too.

The republican primaries in Alameda county, Cal., last Saturday were carried for Blaine. The delegates elected from the seven wards of Oakland were for Blaine to a man.

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 24, 1880.

CITY.

SHOT IN THE LEG.—Yesterday about half past 12 o'clock Johnny Mooney, a lad aged eight years, was found lying in the road near the Sherlock place, below the city, in an unconscious condition. A pistol was found lying at his side, and on examination it was found that he was shot in the right thigh. He was conveyed to his home near the boneyard on North Front st. and as his condition was considered critical, the lad was subsequently taken to St. Vincent's Hospital, where he is now. It seems that the boy left his home yesterday morning about 8 o'clock and nothing more was heard of him until he was picked up in the road. By some means he obtained possession of a pistol, and it is supposed that while fooling with the weapon it was discharged, the ball (being a No. 4 shot), taking effect in the fleshy part of the thigh and penetrating nearly to the bone. Probably he had been lying in the road for several hours, as he was very cold and insensible. From loss of blood, the boy was very weak and faint. When restored to consciousness he could not tell how the accident occurred. After being removed to the hospital, the ball was extracted by Dr. Jones and the wound dressed. At last accounts the boy was very weak from loss of blood, and fears are entertained of his recovery. Mr. Mooney, the father of the wounded lad, is working at the Cascades. The family is said to be in very destitute circumstances, living in a miserable little shanty. It might be well for some of the organized charities of the city to inquire into the condition of this family and render what assistance is needed.

FINES REMITTED.—The secretary of the treasury last week remitted the fine imposed by the judge of the U. S. district court of this city, upon the barks Stillman B. Allen and Stonewall Jackson, for bringing to this port more passengers from China than the law allowed vessels to carry. The ground of the secretary's action was that the captains of the vessels acted in good faith, and were allowed to take the number of passengers they brought by Consul Mosby, who surveyed the vessels and gave them their certificates at Hongkong, which is essentially a British port under British law. Vessels are allowed one passenger for every 12 feet of deck area, while under American law they are allowed but one for every 14 feet. Mosby unfortunately certified the ships under British measurement, and this error got them into trouble upon their arrival. The treasury department thought it was no more than just to remit a penalty incurred through Mosby's blunder, and did so.

THE WORK OF ASSESSMENT.—From Mr. George O. Sears, county assessor, it is learned that the work of assessing that portion of Multnomah county adjacent to Columbia slough (including Sauvie's Island), and all the lowlands which are annually inundated by the June freshet, has been completed. Unless the weather proves unfavorable, Mr. Sears will visit Rooster Rock next Monday and make an assessing canvass of that portion of the county. As yet the assessor has not visited Powell valley nor the western portion of the county. But those sections will be reached as soon as practicable. The blank statements sent to property owners in the city to be filled will not be distributed until about the first of June. This is for the purpose of enabling property owners who have buildings in process of construction to complete them and include the same in their statements.

ADDITIONAL PARTICULARS.—Our occasional correspondent at Vancouver sends the following: There has nothing special developed at the coroner's examination into the cause of the death of Sylvester D. Ogden. The young man had suffered a long while from consumption, and weary and tired of life committed suicide on Tuesday morning of this week, at 5 o'clock. He had procured a pistol from some member of the family to place under his pillow, as he claimed to prevent himself from being frightened by bad dreams. Before giving the revolver to him all the cartridges were taken out. By some means he secured two cartridges from a trunk in the house, loaded the pistol and shot himself at the time spoken of above, through the heart. He died almost instantly. The young man was about twenty-five years old, unmarried.

ELEVENTH ANNIVERSARY.—Next Monday will be the eleventh anniversary of the organization of the high school in Portland, and the event will be duly observed. The exercises which were to have taken place at the high school yesterday, will be deferred until Monday afternoon in commemoration of the event. A very interesting and profitable time is anticipated. A cordial invitation is extended the old board of directors, who were serving at the time—Wm. Wadhams, Judge E. D. Shattuck and Gen. A. L. Lovejoy.

ARTICLES FILED.—The following articles of incorporation have recently been filed in the office of the secretary of state at Salem: Eugene Chapter No. 16, R. A. M. Incorporators, Joseph Neithof, John M. Sloan and J. G. Gray. Capital stock, $1200. Also, Cove Lodge No. 82, I. O. O. F., Cove, Oregon. Incorporators, John M. Eby, S. M. Bloom, John Martin. Capital stock, $700. Noble Burial Association of West Chehalem, Yamhill county. Incorporators L. W. Harger, J. D. Carter, F. H. Christianson. Capital stock, $300.

DOWN WITH THE MEASLES.—Mr. R. L. Durham, auditor and clerk, was taken down with the measles Thursday night and confined at his home. His little girl has been quite ill with the measles, and Mr. Durham having never had the disease, contracted it by waiting on the child. He will probably not be able to resume his duties for some days. Meantime Mr. R. B. Curry is presiding pro tem. over the office. We hope to soon chronicle the recovery of Mr. Durham.

TIME TABLE OF OREGON R. R. CO.—We publish this morning the time table of the west side division of the Oregon Railway Co. (formerly the Dayton, Sheridan & Grand Ronde railroad.) Boats leaving here at 7 A. M. make connection with the train leaving Dayton at 3:30 P. M. Returning, the train at Dayton makes connection with down river boats about 3 A. M., arriving here about 1 P. M.

TIN RETURNED FROM ALASKA.—The steamer California brought from Alaska forty cases of tin from the Cutting Packing Company's cannery and discharged it at Eagle Cliff yesterday. It is understood that the company will not run its Alaska cannery this season on account of the increased price of tin and the difficulty of obtaining competent help.

RETURNED.—Mr. Barton Hill and Miss Josie Cameron returned from a several weeks' tour over on the Sound. During their absence they have given readings and dramatic scenes at Victoria, Seattle, Olympia, Port Townsend and other points on the sound. They have experienced a profitable and pleasant season.

ADDITION TO INSANE ASYLUM.—The contract for a new addition to the insane asylum has been let according to plans prepared by E. M. Burton, architect, to Monroe & Burger Bros. The addition will be thirty-four by one hundred and fifty feet, two stories high, and will cost about $5000.

DEAD.—Thomas Nihen, well known in sporting circles in this city, died a few days ago at St. Catherines, Canada. The deceased had been an invalid for a long time and left Portland several months ago in hopes of benefiting his health.

PROUD EAST PORTLAND.—The residents of our sister city feel as though her residents had not been neglected in the way of public offices. East Portland has the governor, the district judge, and now her cup of happiness is full by having the next congressman, M. C. George.

RE-ENGAGED.—Mr. Barton Hill and Miss Josie Cameron have been engaged by Manager John Maguire for a season of four weeks for Portland, The Dalles and Walla Walla and other points. They will be supported by a thoroughly efficient and reorganized company.

EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENTS.—Gov. Thayer has just made the following appointments: A. G. Hovey of Eugene City, notary public, and Geo. A. Hero of New Orleans, La., as commissioner for Oregon to reside in the state of Louisiana.

A HANDSOME HORN.—Mr. Thos. Parrott, leader of the East Portland Brass Band, has just received from the east a very handsome horn, which is known as an alto trombone. This is the only instrument of that class in this state.

NEW FLOOR.—The Turn Verein has taken out the old floor of the society's gymnasium in the basement of the hall, and substituted for it a substantial new one.

THE ODD FELLOWS' ENTERTAINMENT.

The entertainment to be given Monday evening by the Odd Fellows of this city and East Portland at Mechanics' Fair Pavilion for the benefit of an orphans' home and educational fund will probably draw together the largest audience ever assembled on a similar occasion in Portland since the concert given at the rink in 1871 for the benefit of the sufferers by the Chicago fire. An immense number of tickets have been sold, one member of the committee alone having disposed of eighty-five. All arrangements have been made by the various committees and nothing left undone which will add to the enjoyment of the evening.

The stage will be erected west of the fountain, and the center of the main floor from the fountain to Second street will be kept clear during the concert. The spaces at either side under the galleries will be furnished with chairs placed in diagonal rows. Two rows of chairs on the second floor will encircle the gallery railing, and the space behind them will be reserved for promenading. The members of the order will meet in the art gallery, promptly at 7:15, there don the regalia which will be ready for them and headed by Ensign battalion as a guard of honor will at 7:30, sharp march to the main hall and form in semi-circles east of the fountain. The battalion will occupy places on the stage. These positions will be maintained during the exercises of the order, which will close at 8:15. The members will then retire from the main floor so that those seated at the side will have a clear view. The concert will commence promptly at 8:30 and the grand march about 10.

The entrance for visitors will be on Second street, and for the singers on Third street. A full corps of ushers will be in attendance, and all auditors seated with the least possible delay. Quite a number of Odd Fellows from Oregon City, Salem, Vancouver, Hillsboro and other surrounding towns, have signified their intention of being present.

THE ESMOND.—Mr. George Simmonds, of Kentucky, proprietor of the famous Nabob whisky, who has been in the city for a few days past, started for Walla Walla yesterday morning, where he will go to look after his business interests. Mr. Simmonds speaks a good word to us for the new Esmond House of this city, which is to be opened in a few days. He has been an extensive traveler and stopped at many of the leading hotels of the United States. He was shown through the Esmond by Mr. Brenner, and was very much pleased with its arrangements. Mr. S. says that it will compare very favorably with the best first class hotels of the leading cities of the east, and will be a great credit to our city. We are glad to hear so favorable an opinion from so competent a judge.

The last act in the province of Oregon state political conventions for some time to come was consummated on Thursday last, and now, as in all times, it becomes the duty of all good citizens to look about in a business way for low prices in clothing, etc. Go to Beck & Waldman's.

FEMININE BEAUTY
Mainly consists in the hair. A thin, coarse and dry head of hair is incompatible with beauty, and it becomes the duty of every lady, desirous of preserving her charms, to enhance its appearance in every way, rendering it enduring so as to effectually guard against the alternative of having to appear in public at a great disadvantage. Like autumn leaves woman is stripped of her beauty by the fall of her hair. Avoid, therefore, these dire ful consequences by the timely use of the Oriental Tonic, which imparts renewed vigor and beauty to the waving tresses, crowning the masterpiece of nature.

"My child," said the Captain, "I'm not finding fault; no harm in putting your best foot foremost. I wish you'd do it a little more. At your age you ought to be thinking about getting married." There's very little doubt that the giddy young thing was thinking about it, much more seriously than the Captain—dull, as all men are—ever imagined; but she was troubled about her complexion. Madame Rachel's Enamel Bloom was recommended, and solved the problem. Perfectly harmless, made of the most delicate plants, and wholesome in its effects, it is indispensable to every lady. J. A. Child, druggist, cor. Second and Morrison.

THE OREGON KIDNEY TEA:
Read the following testimonials, not from persons 3,000 miles away, whom no one knows but from well known and trustworthy citizens of Oregon, whose names, written with their own hands, can be seen at our office:

Harrisburg, Oregon, December 31, 1879.
The Oregon Kidney Tea has done my wife as much if not more good than any of the many remedies she has used for pains in the back, and I believe it to be a good remedy for the diseases which it is recommended for. A. M. COX.

Harrisburg, Oregon, December 31, 1879.
Some three months ago I was attacked with a severe pain in my back. I bought a package of the Oregon Kidney Tea, and by the time I had used one half of it was entirely relieved and have not been troubled since. I cheerfully recommend it to all who may be suffering from a lame or weak back, as a pleasant safe and good remedy. R. J. GRIGSBY.

A GOOD THING.
German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A. Boschee, a celebrated German Physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in medicine. It quickly cures Coughs, Colds and all Lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does, the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually. Beware of medicines of similar names, lately introduced. Boschee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75 cents. Sample bottle 10 cents.

MEDICAL COLLEGE DOINGS.

The medical department closes its fourteenth annual session with this week. Although the past year was a pretty tight one with medical students in common with their fellows, the class of matriculants numbered twenty six, and after a hatching three years, which have been devoted to close study, a brood of half a dozen talented young doctors will soon be turned loose to engage in the application of means of relief for the "ills which flesh is heir to" as well as those which flesh may acquire through violations of physiological and sanitary laws.

The commencement exercises will be held in the Taylor street church on Tuesday evening next. President Lambert, of the university, will deliver the address, and Prof. Payton, of the faculty, the charge to the graduating class.

These exercises promise to be unusually interesting and entertaining, and all lovers of learning and all who wish to spend an enjoyable evening will be well repaid for attending. There is no expense attached. The medical men only ask for the encouraging presence of their friends.

A medical gentleman lately from the east, after calling upon our school during its past session, was heard to say that as didactic instructors, the faculty of the Oregon Medical College would compare very favorably with their eastern and more celebrated peers.

No student need go beyond Portland for medical tuition, at least until he is so far trained as to be able after learning and experience to comprehend the more exhaustive clinical lessons afforded by the great hospitals of our largest cities.

Attention! Attention! Attention!

Is called to the fact that we have just received, per steamer State of California, a LARGE BANKRUPT STOCK, purchased in New York by MR. J. FRANKLIN at 50 cents on the dollar, and the way we intend to show you that what we say is so, and not merely bragging, is by giving you a Price List that will astonish you all; and if these figures are not the LOWEST in Oregon, we will stand aside and take a back seat. Competition is the life of trade, and there is so much competition in Portland that goods must be sold low to gain trade, and owing to the facilities we have in having our own wholesale house in San Francisco, at 18 and 20 Battery street, we will again state that our prices cannot be beat.

In few respects has our local market changed for a week past.

Wheat is coming forward pretty freely from the Upper Columbia, and quotations are given at $1 60 to $1 70 per cental according to the wants of buyers or the necessity which is put on holders to sell.

Flour is quoted about 25c per bbl lower than a week ago, with a fairly active trade. There is a good demand for oats, though prices are not notably higher, say 45@48c per bushel, for good to choice. Dried fruits are in good request, stocks being small. Holders are asking 9@9½ per lb for apples. There is a fair inquiry for poultry and eggs. Chickens are held at $4@4 50 per dozen, Eggs firm at 15c.

Wool has come forward slowly owing to the continued bad weather. Prices are weaker, valley being quoted at 32½@35c, Eastern Oregon 27@33c.

THE REAL ESTATE MARKET.

PORTLAND, April 23, 1880.

The following special report of the real estate market is furnished THE OREGONIAN by Clark & Upton, real estate brokers and architects:

The number of deeds recorded since our last report, two weeks ago, is 46, the aggregate amount is $35,472 50. They were distributed as follows: City properties, 21; country and suburban, 14; East Portland, 7; cemetery lots, 2; U. S. patent, 1. One deed was confirmatory and 6 for nominal consideration. The showing is considerably below that of the two weeks last reported, which was unusually heavy. The greatest decrease is in East Portland properties. These facts are presumably mainly attributable to the broken weather experienced during the past two weeks, which has greatly retarded building operations and been unfavorable to locomotion. There is no diminution of confidence in real estate circles. The revival of immigration and the large number of improvements projected and to be made during the coming summer afford indications of good times ahead. The said indications are further augmented by the various railroad operations in progress, the effect of which has as yet scarcely commenced to be felt in Portland. The outlook for the real estate market is both encouraging and satisfactory. Sellers hold for and obtain higher rates than some months ago. There is, however, no boom and very little rash speculation. The great bulk of the transactions made appear to be for permanent investment.

WHEAT AND SALMON AT LIVERPOOL.

The following cable was received to-day (delayed by lines being down) by the Commercial Reporter from their special correspondent:

LIVERPOOL, April 21.

Influence on the market—Large wheat fleet on coast, and also lower country markets.

Oregon wheat on coast—Basis of fair average, 49s 6d per quarter.

Oregon wheat for prompt shipment—Basis of fair average, 46s 6d per quarter c. f. i. iron vessel.

Salmon—Columbia river average good brand in 1-pound tins for prompt shipment is quotable at 22s per case c. f. i. iron vessel. This is 3d lower than the highest price paid this season.

WOOL AND WOOLEN GOODS.

Market at the East and Abroad.

The following telegram was received by the Commercial Reporter to-day (delayed by lines being down) from their regular correspondent:

BOSTON, April 21.

The wool market is quiet, with light and very little business doing. Manufacturers are buying only as their necessity requires. Holders are anxious to sell, and would make concessions to effect sales.

The New York market is reported by our house to be still duller than Boston.

The woolen goods market is quiet, with little business doing.

At the London wool sales, which opened yesterday and are continued to-day, there is a large attendance. Prices obtained mark an advance of from ½d to 1d (1c to 2c).

San Francisco Wheat Quotations.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 22.

Butter—Firm at 18@20.

Wheat—The market shows no features of striking interest and very little demand, movement is smaller.

Potatoes—Garnett Chili, lots on wharf, probably would bring 60@62½; stocks in city very little demand until storms abate, when receipts will rapidly increase; bay reds now slow at 50c per sack.

April 23.—Receipts—2000 qr sks flour, 1600 ctls wheat, 600 sks potatoes, 8000 doz eggs.

Fever and Ague.

The true antidote to the effects of miasma is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. This medicine is one of the most popular remedies of an age of successful proprietary specifics, and is in immense demand wherever on this Continent fever and ague exists. A wineglassful three times a day is the best possible preparative for encountering a malarious atmosphere, regulating the liver, and invigorating the stomach.

DR. C. McLANE'S

CELEBRATED

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side, the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. C. MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

The genuine are never sugar coated.

Every box has a red wax seal on the lid, with the impression DR. MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS.

The genuine MCLANE'S LIVER PILLS bear the signatures of C. MCLANE and FLEMING BROS. on the wrappers.

Insist upon having the genuine Dr. C. McLane's Liver Pills, prepared by Fleming Bros. of Pittsburgh, Pa., the market being full of imitations of the name McLane, spelled differently but same pronunciation.

MIDDLE AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty to sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system in a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and sometimes small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the cause, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S. will guarantee a perfect cure in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.
